SPONSORS

This gala event is made possible through the generosity of major sponsorships.

American Family Insurance is the Presenting Sponsor of the 2009 Lunar New Year Celebration.

Pan-Asian Sponsor is LG Electronics U.S.A., Inc.;

Community Sponsor is Korea Tourism Organization;

Coalition Sponsors are: Chicago Children's Museum; Foster Bank; Office of the Cook County Treasurer Maria Pappas; State Farm Insurance and WPI Cellular, among others.

An event held on this grand of a scale only once a year, Lunar New Year is traditionally the single largest organized annual event in Chicago's Asian American community. Every year a different Asian community takes turn playing host of the Lunar New Year gala. This year it is the Korean American Community, which has thrice before (in 1985, 1993, and 2001) held the gavel for the community's most important event of the year. The Korean American Association of Chicago is providing the leadership this year. Kay Kihwa Rho is 2009 Chair of the Asian American Coalition of Chicago.

- - ADD THREE

Wang Ki Kim's most recent movie release is the beautiful and poignant feature film, "The Gift," (Win Media and Yehyang, 2006), which was an Official Selection in three film festivals to date. (Details and full profile below.) Kim has also produced over 100 concerts, seminars and conferences. In 2008, he produced the 7080 Concert (music from the 70's and 80's) in over 13 U.S. cities. MCTS-TV's headquarters are located in Chicago's northwest suburb of Arlington Heights, Illinois, and include a 4000-square foot concert hall, and two studios – including one for mixing.

Irene (ENERI/Rieny G.) Cualoping, Managing Partner, ENERI Communications, is serving as Supervising Producer of the 2009 26th Annual Lunar New Year Show. This year's show marks the 25th Asian Lunar New Year Show that Cualoping has worked on. Min Jae Shin, a producer at MCTS-TV; also an experienced graphic designer, videographer, editor and entrepreneur, has been named Show Production Manager; Timothy Pak of Los Angeles has been named Technical Director and Lighting Director; and Hyojin Kim, also of Los Angeles, has been named Sound Manager.

Min Jae Shin's graphic design work has been featured in exhibitions abroad in Korea. Among numerous accomplishments, also in Korea, Shin served as Account Executive and Assistant Director for KISS Creative Group Co., where he worked on projects featuring the Dom Perignon, Levi's Jeans, Coca-Cola and Nike labels. Also an entrepreneur, Shin serves as Vice President of Veryberry Fro-Yo & Coffee Inc., located in Buffalo Grove, Illinois, which he operates with his wife Jeanette Kim, who serves as President.

Timothy Pak's wide range of production experience includes musicals, live concerts and musical festivals. Notable productions that he has coordinated include Jonny Lang's West Region Tour, Marilyn Manson's Halloween Concert, B.B. King's Los Angeles Concert and FAME the Musical and Footloose the Musical, both at the Pantages Theatre in Hollywood, California. Hyojin Kim's sound work projects include many concerts such as Don Moen, Paul Baloche, The Kry and numerous Korean pop singing stars.

event planning and CF (Commercial Film) production company (since 2004); President of MCTS-TV (Midwest Christian Television System) (since 2004); and Director of Yehyang Cultural Ministry (since 1984); has been named Show Director of the 26th Annual Asian American Coalition of Chicago Lunar New Year Celebration, a black-tie optional gala for over 1,000 attendees, to be held Saturday, January 24, 2009 at the Hyatt Regency O'Hare in Rosemont, Illinois. Detailed event information is available on the website: www.aacchicago.org.

Wang Ki Kim is Executive Producer of the beautiful and poignant feature film, "The Gift," (Win Media and Yehyang, 2006). "The Gift" is based on a true story of Derrick, a second generation Korean American who became a drug addict, just like his sister, shattering his parents' hearts and souls. However, one day, when everyone turns and walks away from Derrick, a true friend comes to him and helps him to realize the most valuable gift for his life is the family.

Written and directed by Hyung Hyup Kim, with director of photography Mark Ahn and produced by Dan Ahn with a beautiful and haunting musical score by Sinae Yoon, "The Gift," filmed in English with Korean subtitles, was named Official Film Selection of the East Lansing Film Festival (2007, Michigan State University, Michigan); the Los Angeles Korean International Film Festival (2006, Laemmle Sunset 5 Theatre, West Hollywood) and the 3rd Korean Network Film Festival (2007, Seoul, Korea).

Wang Ki Kim is President of MCTS-TV (Midwest Christian Television System), whose shows are broadcast by DirecTV Channel 2087 and Chicago Channel 41. (MCTS-TV shows air weekly on Sunday nights on Chicago Channel 41 and AT&T Cable Channel 41 (from 7 p.m. – 10 p.m.), and on DirecTV Channel 2087 weekly on Monday from 9 p.m. – 10 p.m. and Wednesdays from 5 p.m.- 6 p.m.) MCTS-TV's headquarters are located in Chicago's northwest suburb of Arlington Heights, Illinois, and include a 4000-square foot concert hall, and two studios – including one for mixing.

Win Media's projects include providing sound and lighting for the Annual Korean Festival in Chicago for the last three years (2006-2008); sound, lighting and video for the 2005 Jina Tai Dinner Show (Tae is a famous Korean singer); and sound, lighting and video for the 2006 Seol, Undo, Joo, Hyunmee Dinner Show, also featuring famous Korean singers.

Wang Ki Kim is Founder and Director of Yehyang Cultural Ministry (since 1984). Yehyang focuses on family-related cultural events and ministry. Activities include a praise band; vocal, instrumental and theater performances; counseling for youth-related school matters; and addressing problems such as drugs and alcohol. Kim is the publisher of the monthly newspaper "Yehyang."

Wang Ki Kim was the Executive Producer for the play "Café Millennium" (1999); the theater version of "The Gift" (2004 in Chicago and 2006 in Los Angeles); and the play, "The Love Beyond Forgiveness" (2005). Wang Ki Kim has produced over 100 worship concerts, seminars and conferences. In 2008, he produced the 7080 Concert in over 13 U.S. cities. In 2006, Kim produced the Steve Yoo (Sung Joon) Concert at the Christian Heritage Academy. Over 800 people attended this concert.

Wang Ki Kim was trained as an electrical engineer by profession. He holds a Bachelor of Science in Electrical Engineering degree from Devry University (1981). He also holds a Master of Science degree in
